CCHD Grant: $25,000

The Problem:

- Member of MASS-CARE – a coalition that advocates for birth control and “reproductive health care.”
- Member of Community Works – a coalition of 33 groups which raises funds for pro-abortion and pro-homosexual organizations.
- Member of pro-abortion, pro-homosexual, Marxist Jobs With Justice

The Response:

After contacting the local diocese with initial findings in July, American Life League never heard back.

ALL scheduled a meeting with the Executive Director of National CCHD to discuss the report. The meeting was subsequently cancelled by CCHD with the explanation, “we see no reason to meet at this time.”

2011-2012 CCHD GRANTEES

If you have questions or concerns about CCHD, the Review and Renewal or any of these groups or grants, please contact Ralph McCloud, CCHD Director at rmccloud@usccb.org or 202-541-3367.

The Review and Renewal of the Campaign for Human Development specifically states that “CCHD will not fund groups that are members of coalitions which have as their organizational purpose or coalition agenda, positions or actions that contradict fundamental Catholic moral and social teaching.” The following coalition memberships in this report are clear violations of this guideline.

The Review and Renewal of

Other questions address CCHD funding for some groups that abide by CCHD policies, but are also part of coalitions focused on worthy issues (e.g. immigration, health or housing) in cases where those coalitions or other members are accused of taking positions contrary to Catholic teaching. CCHD will not fund groups that are members of coalitions which have as part of their organizational purpose or coalition agenda, positions or actions that contradict fundamental Catholic moral and social teaching. CCHD is developing additional structures and guidance to address in greater detail the ethical implications of these relationships and what is morally acceptable and what is not for CCHD funded groups.

Membership Pledge Form

Mass-Care's membership form states a pledge to pay annual dues.

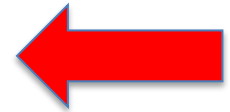

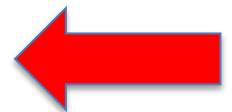

Mass-Care produced an open letter to the Democratic Party of Massachusetts, complaining that the party platform dropped reference to “stem-cell research and the embodiment of marriage equality in the constitution.”

Dear Massachusetts Democratic Party Delegates,

This year the Party’s Platform Committee has proposed a dramatic rewrite of the state Platform, eliminating almost all references to particular policies, replacing them instead with references to broad goals and values. We write to you as fellow delegates, as city and town committee activists, as members of advocacy organizations, and as concerned Democrats who are working to make these values a reality on the ground, to urge that you oppose watering down the platform at the upcoming State Convention.

The word “immigrant” has been expunged from the newly proposed document, and along with it support for immigrants’ right to organize into unions, equal rights for undocumented workers, prevailing wage policies, indexing the minimum wage to inflation, and no public funds for union busting. The new platform also drops any reference to national war spending, opposition to the Patriot Act, affirmative action, American Indian tribal sovereignty, stem-cell research and the embodiment of marriage equality in the constitution.

One of Mass-Care's complaints, and why it calls for single-payer health care is because birth control costs are too high.

Gender Disparities in Access to Care

Private, employer-based health insurance in the United States is particularly hard on women. Women require more medical services than men, primarily due to reproductive and preventative care, including mammographies, pap smears and birth control. Because of this, they spend much more on health care annually: In 2006, 63% of women spent more than $1,050 out-of-pocket for health care, compared to only 46% of men. In addition, women are 15% less

<http://masscare.org/health-care-disparities/gender-disparities-in-access-to-care/>

Mass-Care's explanation of single-payer health care includes "reproductive health services."

Frequently Asked Questions

What is single payer?

A single payer insurance system for Massachusetts would be like an improved and expanded Medicare plan for everyone in the state, guaranteeing access to comprehensive health care for all residents. The "single payer" would be a public agency that pays for health care, but the delivery of care would remain largely private. Under this system, all Massachusetts residents would be covered for all medically necessary services including: doctor, hospital, preventative, long-term care, mental health, reproductive health care, dental, vision, prescription drug and medical supply costs.

Minutes from Mass-Care's December 2011 meeting identified the Democratic Socialists of America recruiting within the Occupy movement and stated that it is good to get "The Right" away from abortion and prayer in school.

Teens and Birth Control: Your Questions Answered

TV: At what age is it safe to start using hormonal birth control?

Dr. Rothchild: We really don't know the answer to that. We do know that there are teens that start birth control pills fairly early either because they're sexually active or because they have a hormone disease that needs to be treated, and we think that it's safe to use fairly early but we don't have an absolute age.

The Women's Center

The Women's Health Center is dedicated to "reproductive freedom."

women's rights

The Women's Center works for women's rights. While tremendous strides have been made since the early 1970's for some groups of women in the United States, other groups of women continue to experience extreme vulnerability, demeaning gender-based stereotypes, and gender-based poverty. In addition, the gains made by even the most privileged women, are constantly threatened by right wing conservatives.

The Women's Center promotes and supports public policy initiatives designed to:

5. Protect women's health;
6. Protect and broaden women's reproductive choices

CVS Fails to Adequately Address Expired Goods in Most Metro Indianapolis Stores Surveyed, According to New Study by Cure CVS

Indianapolis, Indiana – Local chapters of the National Organization for Women (NOW), Planned Parenthood, Jobs with Justice and other groups held a noontime rally outside a local CVS store at 5110 E. 38th Street on Thursday, calling on the company to stop selling expired goods and stop locking up condoms in its stores. The rally was one of 14 events taking place outside CVS stores across the country today.

Massachusetts Jobs with Justice posted a job advertisement for the National Network of Abortion Funds.

One of the job responsibilities includes providing “referral information” for women “in need of an abortion.”

Full-time Program Associate, National Network of Abortion Funds
Monday, January 3, 2011

Organization Description:

The National Network of Abortion Funds (the Network) is a group of 100 grassroots abortion funds around the country and abroad dedicated to helping women pay for abortions they could not otherwise afford. The Network’s national office (located in downtown Boston) is a non-profit organization that provides support to build our grassroots abortion Funds into stronger organizations that help more women. The national office also works on the state and federal level for policies that respect the lives, futures, and health decisions of low-income women and girls, women of color, immigrant women, and Native and indigenous women.

Job Opportunity:

The Network is seeking a full-time Program Associate to join our small, dedicated and fun team in our beautiful office in downtown Boston! The Program Associate supports the direct service, member support, fundraising, and other programming work of the Network. This staff member provides critical administrative support and also plays a key role in coordinating the Network’s Organizing Summit on abortion funding and reproductive justice.

Responsibilities include:

- Responding to calls from women in need of an abortion and providing referral information

OCTOBER-DECEMBER 2007

Kentucky JwJ announced a “victory over homophobia” in JwJ’s 2007 newsletter. Kentucky JwJ stated its support for the “Fairness Campaign” in the article.

KY JwJ Supports Victory Against Sexual Orientation Discrimination

Shortly after midnight on Tuesday, November 27th, the Jefferson County Board of Education voted by a 4-3 margin to add sexual orientation, but not gender identity, to its non-discrimination and harassment policies. This was a definite victory over homophobia, and for school equality, as anti-Fairness forces had mobilized in full force against this measure. It was not, however, a victory for full equality, as JCPS employees are still at risk for harassment and discrimination based on gender identity...for now.

Like many organizations, Kentucky Jobs With Justice spoke up with the Fairness Campaign in its time of need! KY JwJ's Coordinator spoke at the November 12th Board meeting and sent a GetActive alert to all of our Louisville members asking them to call their Board Member or to send them an e mail.

Steve Imhoff, Larry Hujo, Debbie Wesslund, and Joe Hardesty all voted to expand protection, and should be applauded for their courage and commitment to justice. Sadly, Ann Elmore, Carol Ann Haddad, and Linda Duncan all failed to understand just how important this issue is and voted against protecting our community's educators and the basic human rights of working people.

The Campaign for School Equality continues! KY JwJ will continue to stand by the Fairness Campaign to win protection for all JCPS workers from discrimination and harassment based on gender identity and to amend the Student Code of Conduct to guarantee the same protections for all students in the JCPS school system.

Jobs with Justice hosted a job announcement for the Democratic Socialists of America, requiring, “Commitment to feminist, anti-racist, and anti-heterosexist principles and action.”

Job Announcement

DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISTS OF AMERICA YOUTH ORGANIZER

Democratic Socialists of America (DSA), the largest socialist organization in the US, and an affiliate of the global Socialist International, seeks an organizer for its youth division, the Young Democratic Socialists (YDS).

YDS is an organization of campus-based chapters and regionally-based groupings of younger (under 30) socialists who wish to develop a political and cultural space of their own, yet one that is an integral part of DSA. The organizer works out of DSA's national office in New York City and travels throughout the United States to speak to both new and experienced YDS campus chapters, as well as to independent progressive students interested in learning about democratic socialism.

Responsibilities

- Organize an annual winter outreach conference and an annual summer conference for current members and chapters, in collaboration with the elected and volunteer leadership of Young Democratic socialists (YDS):
- Recruit new members and assist in the formation of new chapters
- Facilitate the ongoing political work of the members and chapters
- Provide staff support, especially leadership development
- Represent YDS at conferences and meetings of other radical activists

Requirements

- Identify as a socialist and be grounded in democratic socialist politics and history; general agreement with the positions and perspectives of YDS and DSA
- Experience organizing campus, labor, political, or community-based groups and events
- Excellent public speaking, communication, writing, and computer skills
- Strong time management skills and ability to use limited resources effectively
- Thorough understanding of academic settings, politics, and calendars at secondary and post-secondary levels
- Ability to work effectively with young people from diverse backgrounds
- Commitment to feminist, anti-racist, and anti-heterosexist principles and action

CONFERENCE AGENDA

Schedule and Workshop Descriptions

Viewing International Family Planning and Women's Health Through a Human Rights Perspective

Sears Building Room 435

Access to contraceptives and reproductive health services is every woman's right, but we know that access to safe and legal abortions, healthy forms of birth control, effective condoms, and other health services is limited at best. Panelists will share thoughts and experiences on how current U.S. abstinence-only policies hinder the global fight against HIV/AIDS. They will also discuss how the Global Gag Rule and the de-funding of the UNFPA increase maternal mortality and limit access to vital reproductive healthcare and services for many families around the world.

Jobs with Justice is a national campaign for workers' rights. We mobilize workers and allies on campaigns to win justice in workplaces and in communities where working families live. In over 40 communities across the country Jobs with Justice coalitions bring together unions, community groups, people of faith and student activists to fight for workers' rights social and economic justice.

The Jobs with Justice 2007 Annual Report states that its project, “Students Labor Action Project” works closely with the Young Democratic Socialists and The Young Communist League

STUDENT LABOR ACTION PROJECT

The Student Labor Action Project (SLAP) staffed and supported the newly-formed Student Economic Justice Action Coalition (SEJAC). SEJAC is an informal coalition of the United Students Against Sweatshops, United States Student Association, Young Democratic Socialists, Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano/a de Aztlan, Student Farmworker Alliance, Young Communist League, and the Student Labor Action Project working together on social and economic justice issues on campuses across the country. The group collaborates on the Student Labor Week of Action and shares information on national campaigns.
